

FROM THE PASTOR

HAPPY EASTER! – As we reach the eighth day of our 50 day celebration of the Resurrection these words come to mind:

“We pray that the Church may constantly watch over the unfolding of the mysteries of human salvation” (from the Mass on St. Joseph’s Day, March 19).

“It is not that I have already taken hold of it or have already attained perfect maturity, but I continue my pursuit in hope that I may possess it, since I have indeed been taken possession of by Christ Jesus.” (Philippians 3:12)

THANK YOU – to all those who contributed in so many ways to our beautiful and spirit-filled celebrations during the recent Paschal Triduum which is the source and summit of our parish’s annual life. I am very grateful to our clergy and religious, our staff, our liturgical ministers, and our many volunteers who co-operated with the Holy Spirit for the glory of God, the salvation of each of our souls, and the building up of the Body of Christ among us.

THE OCTAVE DAY OF EASTER – In the Book of Genesis we read that, after having worked for six days to bring everything into existence, the Creator completed the work of the creation with a day of rest. This completion of the first creation has been celebrated and continues to be celebrated each seventh day: Saturday, the Jewish Sabbath.

Early on, Christians saw Easter Sunday as the first day of the New, Second Creation, and so our celebration of the Sabbath has shifted to Sunday, the eighth day—marking the completion of what was and the transition to something new. We can see an echo of this in music where an octave is a complete set, with the octave (eighth) note marking both the completion of what was and the start of something new.

Almost every baptismal font I’ve ever seen has eight sides and many Catholic church buildings

(eg., St. Basil’s in Kimberthon) are octagonal. To have been baptized into Christ is to have begun “to live in newness of life” (Romans 6:4). To be in the Church is to have begun to live in the new Creation: “Whoever is in Christ is a new creation; the old things have passed away; behold, new things have come” (2 Corinthians 5:17).

SO, WHAT’S NEW? – The Mass readings this past week have offered almost all of the post-Resurrection encounters with the Lord found in the Gospels, leading up to today’s critical Gospel on the Octave Day itself—the ONE Sunday each year when the Gospel reading is always the same. Today we bring to completion the intense first phase of the Easter Season, or again, today we bring to completion the early morning of extended fifty-day celebration of Easter Day that will continue until the Feast of Pentecost on Sunday June 4. Catch the new and unprecedented event that is revealed in today’s Gospel! It is by living the Liturgy, year after year, that we continue to unpack and to learn what it means to “walk in newness of life” (Romans 6:4). It is not so much that we interpret Mystery; rather, it is more that—especially through regular liturgical celebration—we inhabit Mystery. We marinate in Mystery. We become more deeply and wholly inserted into Christ and into his Pascal Process.

DIVINE MERCY FEAST - Nine days ago, on Good Friday, the entire Church began the Novena to the Divine Mercy, which culminates today when the image of Jesus as Divine Mercy is to be prominently honored in every Catholic Church as we celebrate Divine Mercy Sunday.

UPCOMING EVENTS

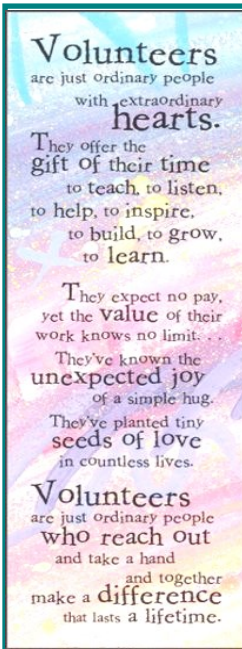

SPRING MASS OF ANOINTING Monday, May 1, 4:00 PM in Griffin Hall followed by a light dinner & social.

The Church believes that the Anointing of the Sick is "especially intended to strengthen those who are being tried by illness." The primary grace of this sacrament, then, is the strength, peace and courage to overcome the difficulties of serious illness and old age. Anointing unites the sick person to the passion of Christ and to the entire Church, giving meaning to the suffering that he or she endures.

If you will be attending please call the Parish Office at 610-933-3732 by April 27.

HOPE Drivers will be available.
