FROM THE PASTOR

HOPE – is the preeminent theme of Advent. To hope is much more than merely to wait. To hope is to wait with expectation, to look forward, to be vigilant—especially in the face of obstacles to hope. As we have been praying within Masses the first half of Advent: “...when he comes again in glory and majesty and all is at last made manifest, we who watch for that day may inherit the great promise in which we now dare to hope.”

THAT SAID – at some points (often for extended periods) we find the words of our ancestors welling up within us: “How long, Lord? Will you utterly forget me? How long will you hide your face from me? How long must I carry sorrow in my soul, grief in my heart day after day?” (Psalm 13:2-3). Even if through grace I have the ability to “now dare to hope,” is there any way to experience hope here and now while looking toward future fulfillment with expectation?

GAUDETE! – The first word of today’s Mass in the Roman Missal is Gaudete which is translated as Rejoice: “Rejoice in the Lord always! I say it again, Rejoice! Indeed, the Lord is near!” (Philippians 4: 4-5). Where is this nearness?

SILENT WORD, PLEADING – St. Augustine (d. 430) wrote that God is intimior intimo meo (“nearer to me than I am to myself”). This Doctor of the Church helps us learn the divine language when he said to God: “You were within me, but I was outside, and it was there that I plunged into the lovely things which you created. You were with me, but I was not with you. Created things kept me from you; yet if they had not been in you they would have not been at all. You called, you shouted, and you broke through my deafness. You flashed, you shone, and you dispelled my blindness.” The Anglican priest George Herbert (d.1633) named this presence our “abiding restlessness” and the Carmelite nun Jessica Powers (d. 1988) reminds us that this Voice is the Voice of a Person.

The Pulley

When God at first made man,
Having a glass of blessings standing by,
Let us (said He) pour on him all we can:
Let the world's riches, which dispersed lie,
Contract into a span.

So strength first made a way;
Then beauty flowed, then wisdom, honour,
pleasure: When almost all was out,
God made a stay, Perceiving that alone of all
His treasure Rest in the bottom lay.

For if I should (said He)
Bestow this jewel also on my creature,
He would adore My gifts instead of Me,
And rest in Nature, not the God of Nature:
So both should losers be.

Yet let him keep the rest,
But keep them with repining restlessness:
Let him be rich and weary, that, at least,
If goodness lead him not, yet weariness
May toss him to My breast.

George Herbert

Advent

I live my Advent in the womb of Mary.
And on one night when a great star swings
free from its high mooring and walks down
the sky to be the dot above the Christus-i,
I shall be born of her by blessed grace.
I wait in Mary-darkness, faith's walled place,
with hope's expectance of nativity.

I knew for long she carried me and fed me, guarded and loved me,
though I could not see.
But only now, with inward jubilee,
I come upon earth's most amazing knowledge:
someone is hidden in this dark with me.

FROM THE PASTOR, cont.

“NEARER MY GOD TO THEE” – goes the great old hymn. In this Penitential Season of Advent let’s remember that the Sacrament of Penance is given to us as an especially graced path with which to draw nearer not only to God but also draw near to ourselves, especially the parts of us that remain in our Shadow. St. John writes that the Light has come into the world but that we choose to love the darkness rather than the Light. Each Advent we celebrate the invasion of the Light (cf. The Advent Wreath) into the dark places within us, within our culture and within creation itself. In my experience, it can burn when I let in this Light, but I think this is what John the Baptist means when he says the One who is coming will baptize us with Fire and the Holy Spirit.

PENITENTIAL PREPARATION – As a preparation for Confession this Advent, I invite you to visit the Pastor’s Portion of our parish homepage and check out “Is G-d Dumb?”

“WHERE IT’S EASY TO DO GOOD”

Dorothy Day, recently declared a “Servant of God” by the Vatican, worked to shape a society “where it is easy to do good.” Wish Lists for a number of local charitable non-profits are posted both on our parish bulletin boards and on our website to make it easier to help neighbors in need at this time of year. Our parish poor box donations in these cold months will support the local Code Blue program.
