

A labor of love: Kenyan mom takes up farming

When Diana Rose was a child, she'd pass a neighbor's farm every day on her long walk to school. She'd dream of one day operating her own farm so she could provide for her future family. While poverty made that dream unlikely to come true, with perseverance and the support of other mothers in her community, today Diana Rose runs a thriving farm and provides employment for eight others. This Labor Day, we celebrate her and hard-working people everywhere, whose work reflects the dignity of their Creator.

Diana Rose has a child sponsored through Unbound. Founded by lay Catholics in 1981, Unbound works with families overcoming extreme poverty in Africa, Asia and Latin America. We invite you to join the Unbound community in a Labor Day prayer.

Please pray

Loving God, bless all who work to earn their daily bread. Grant them diligence and renew their spirits when they are weary. May they know the dignity of their labors and be appreciated by the communities they serve. We pray, too, for those who've lost their jobs because of the pandemic. May we stand with them in their time of need, and may our world soon be blessed with recovery and wholeness. We ask this in the name of our Lord and brother, Jesus the Christ. Amen.
